

Eye Tracking Experiment Consent Form

Information for Study Participants

Thank you for your interest in our study. Please read the following information carefully and then decide whether you wish to participate in this study. If you agree to participate, please sign at the bottom of this page.

Aim of the scientific project:

We conduct an experiment on the visual world paradigm using eye-tracking hardware.

Study procedure:

You will be presented with visual and auditory stimuli on the screen and asked to respond to them according to the instructions. More details will be provided by the study coordinator.

Risks and side effects for subjects:

The movements of your eyes are recorded with a camera. There are no known risks or side effects involved.

Obligations of the subjects:

The success of this study depends on your cooperation. We, therefore, ask you to cooperate in a concentrated manner and in accordance with the instructions.

Confidentiality and handling of data:

The recorded data is stored anonymously and treated confidentially. There is no possibility for the public to associate your data with your identity at any time.

Voluntary participation and the possibility of dropping out of the study:

Your participation in the study is voluntary. You will not suffer any repercussions by not participating in the study. You may discontinue your voluntary participation in the study at any time without providing reasons, and without incurring any disadvantages. The study coordinator may also discontinue the experiment if required.
